Click the share button in the upper right-hand corner of the note, then select the Send to > Email option. Your email address will be automatically copied. You can then click on the email address in the Share note box, and copy the link for wherever you want to send it. Search and Discover Evernote is designed to save your life, and with the new search and discover features, it is even more convenient. You can now search for things, people, or files stored in your notebook. It is also possible to discover similar notes, share what you find, and even use photos. On the left hand side of Evernote, you will find search, which is activated by clicking on the magnifying glass icon. Once the search is open, you can either start typing or select from various templates to search for notes, files, people, and tags. If you know the specific tag for the item you want to find, you can easily specify that, or even search by using a keyword. It is also possible to directly search a notebook by selecting it from the drop-down box at the top. Once you have found what you are looking for, you can click the find note button to get more information on the note. You can even click on the arrow in the top right of the search bar to explore the notes or files of other Evernote users. If you are already using Evernote to store your notes, you will also find the Discover menu under the search button. This is basically a shortcut to the Notebook screen, which will show you your notebooks that are connected with Evernote. Convenient Sharing Evernote is one of the most convenient tools that you can use to organize and share your notes and documents online. With a quick and easy-to-use sharing process, you can share your notes, files, and even your notebooks. You can access the sharing options by clicking on the magnifying glass icon at the top of the screen. From the drop-down menu, you can select the social network of your choice. Once you have selected the network, you can add your email address so that you can share notes and notebooks directly to your
