Cornerstones of Life "Cornerstones of Life" is a power ballad by the British band Chumbawamba, released in 1992. It was also released as the title track of their third studio album, Cornerstones of Life. Lyrics and music The song was co-written by Roger Greer and Roger Fife and composed by Fife. It is based on a fragment of "How Great Thou Art", a hymn text which has been a part of the Christian tradition since the 16th century. Chumbawamba gave the song a more militant attitude than the previous song "Gettin' Over You" on their first album, "Narrow St. Ian", by adding lyrics about homophobia and religious war. It has been noted for being a "powerful and insightful attack on the forces of religious, nationalist and anti-gay extremism". The song was re-released in a version called "Cornerstones of Life '93" on their second album, Set the World to Rights, in 1993. This is a live recording of the song, recorded at Manchester's Whitworth Art Gallery and Museum during the band's tour for "Cornerstones of Life" in 1992. The song 1d6a3396d6
