Enginetech, made by Grinwood: "I'm really into fantasy RPGs, especially those with character development. Grinwood has such a great sense of design and detail in the development of their games, and I've seen many titles from them so far, and now Tarnished Gods is on top of my "must play games" list." (D-GM, made by Grinwood: "This is one of my favorite in Grinwood's catalog. I consider Tarnished Gods to be one of the best and unique rpgs that's out there today. The latest addition to that game is the addition of the new world map. Looking forward to its release, I'm sure it'll be a game that'll keep me entertained for weeks!" (IcePix, made by Grinwood: "The wonderful thing about RAGE (The first title developed by Grinwood) was its strong story. Grinwood continues to deliver strong story with this title. Players can expand their characters' abilities and skills in the game through well written quests. In addition, the multiplayer is interesting and fun. Although RAGE was a bit like world of warcraft, you can enjoy a different story through the game. This latest title of Grinwood, Tarnished Gods, is also a great game. The characters are charismatic and charming, and the monsters are intimidating. If you have played any other games by Grinwood, you will enjoy this game." (REVIEWS Tarnished Gods: Enginetech, made by Grinwood: "Having heard so much about this new game, I was really looking forward to it. The characters are fun, the world looks amazing and it is full of content. I've never been disappointed with a Grinwood game, and I'm glad to see that this game from them once again doesn't disappoint. Looking forward to it, I'm definitely keeping this game on my wish list." (bff6bb2d33
