Resident Lenora Locke told The Independent that she is a "big fan" of the rapper, noting that he "responded really well when some kids were screaming at him in the park. "He's a very nice guy," she said. "He seemed really good. It was just so sad to hear that someone would shoot him and not kill him like they had threatened to." The rapper was shot in the face during the incident, according to police. Although he was taken to Yale New Haven Hospital with critical injuries, he had been released by early Wednesday evening. One of the rapper's representatives said that the rapper was "very blessed to be alive." "We have to commend the two officers involved in this incident. They are heroes," the representative said. e79caf774b
