Transportation Legislative Updates The New York State Legislature is again reviewing two important bills to improve the state's transportation infrastructure. The bills would allow for Long Island Rail Road (LIRR) passenger service to operate through East Moriches Station without the need to travel back to the Mount Vernon Yard in Shirley. The legislation would also amend various transit and road routes to expedite projects throughout Long Island. "I am pleased to have amended these bills to make them even better," said Senator Mark Grisanti (R-20th). "It is crucial that the state invest in these two pending projects so we can get Long Island back on track." "I am proud to have worked with Senator Grisanti in the Assembly to address the needs of commuters and drivers throughout our state," said Assemblymember Tom Abinanti (D-49th). "Improvements in infrastructure are vital to the economic growth of the Long Island region, and these bills will make a big difference to
