Download Links: Details: The music in this game is all music used in the Run or Fight theme of the Shinobi Clash series of Shinobi 3D on the GameCube platform. It is all unlocked, so anyone can freely use it in their game projects. It should be noted that most of these tracks are quite catchy, and might get stuck in your head for a while. So the suggestion is to keep a low volume level when playing the game. However, some sound effects and such are not made for use outside the game. If you intend to use other audio, you have no right to these files, so please do not use them. The game's own theme that you hear while shooting is in the normal song format and you can use it freely. Please use at your own risk. Simple installation instructions: With version 1.13, you will see a new button called "Open Source Editor" on the right side, which will open up a new "C" window. Using that new window, you can open the downloaded files in Microsoft Visual Studio and modify them as you like. You can also modify the "Run_or_Fight.exe" file using Visual Studio. You will see "Bracadabra" is using an empty directory. That is not the case. It is using "../..\\SDK\\Handy\\bin\\" where Handy is a directory that I created on my computer and contain two files "main.cpp" and "main.h". To make you understand better,
