"In Under the Suriminato, a forest there is a hidden secret: an ancient relic shrouded in mystery, and a small village in the center of a world so vast, it seems like a mere glimpse of a dream. That is where you live." "The characters you encounter. The Village of Suriminato" "The player is an amnesiac who encounters the Suriminato village while crossing a desert world. After abandoning his horse, they go towards the village on foot, but what about his past?" "The Suriminato village is an attempt at making a small village with a sense of uniqueness. It is an imagined scenery in the midst of an impossible world. This is a world that people cannot even bear to experience." Unnerving. I'm sure of this. What a world...It would seem that the forest was likely hacked out of a world much like ours. None of them know exactly when this happened, but the main character is slowly recovering his memories. He is also trying to figure out what happened to him. Everything is just beginning, but it is a world so vast, that one must wonder if it is real at all."The village seems to have an unnatural atmosphere. They seem to be living in a fever dream, and from their frightened faces, they might not be able to wake up anytime soon. What is this world, and why is it so different from our world? Even if it is beautiful, it may be better not to reveal it before we know the answer to those questions." Wondering what this place is, I will go find out!
