These games are really great, but they are veryPhoenix Suns Asking $25.5 Million From Steve Nash for Two Years Even though they aren't going to pay him anywhere near the $30 million he is demanding, the Phoenix Suns may be more willing to pony up the $25.5 million franchise tag price to Steve Nash. According to Marc Stein of ESPN the Suns are asking to pay Nash $25.5 million for two years, which is $5 million more than he is worth. Steve Nash will likely be making more than the maximum salary for a player after the 2012-13 season. If the league's salary cap increases from $58.8 million to $62.2 million as is expected, Nash will be able to make more than he would under the $37 million in salary
