Commentary by AlterNet: Nevada State Prison Not for the Kind of Inmate Challenging Rachel Dolezal's Claim to Be Black Commentary by AlterNet: Nevada State Prison Not for the Kind of Inmate Challenging Rachel Dolezal's Claim to Be Black The Murder of Officer Misa by Michelle Alexander Published January 22, 2015 The Inmate Who Lost Her Innocence Four years after graduating from Howard University with a degree in criminal justice, Laura Marie Misa joined the Nevada State Prison system as a correctional officer in Sparks, Nevada. After witnessing this, another officer heard Misa say: "I don't even know what they want me to do. And Doug's going to get out of that cell. I'm going to die here." Misa called her husband and two friends to come and rescue her. Moments later, Alder was led out of the cell by other officers. When he returned, he was carrying a shovel and a folding knife. Misa was
