Many rural communities lack sufficient access to decent water and sanitation, safe food, health care and education. A little help could make a big difference Below are some of the issues that your donation can address: #Water Around the world, more than a billion people lack access to adequate water and sanitation, and that number continues to grow, especially in rural areas. Aid organizations are usually unable to provide the sort of infrastructure that is necessary to provide safe, clean drinking water and sanitation in the very remote areas to which they reach. You can help fight this problem by making a monthly gift or a one-time gift that is a tangible commitment to improving the lives of the people in your community. #Education
